IAMDDDB, Moscoman and Peggy Gou join Paraíso 2019

The festival presents three names that join a line-up made of 35 artists from 17 countries.

Paraíso will soon announce 13 artists, 12 to perform on the new Nido Stage

Madrid, March 2019. The new edition of Paraíso festival, which will take place on June 14 and 15 on the Campus of the Complutense University of Madrid, incorporates new artists to a line-up that explores the global electronic scene with artists from Europe, Africa, Asia, North America, South America and the Caribbean.

On Saturday June 15, the current icon of the underground scene, Peggy Gou, will conquer the dance floor of Paraíso 2019. The South Korean DJ and producer who resides in Berlin is characterized by such a personal sound that it's already been baptized with her own name, Gou, with which she's conquered the top of the lists for best DJ of 2018. In 2019 Peggy Gou continues garnering good reviews for her first single, "Starry Night," a track that inaugurates her own label, Gudu, where her next EP Moment will be released.

Another artist unleashing passions is young British artist IAMDDDB, the artistic name to which Diana De Brito responds, who will first set foot on a stage in Madrid on Friday June 14. Her mix of hip-hop, rnb and soul with her peculiar raspy voice shines on her recently released album Swervvvvv.5. The most urban artist in the line-up arrives in Paraíso to astonish us with this new work, after her recently successful collaboration with Diplo, "Mira Mira".

Israeli DJ and producer Chen Moscovici, also scheduled for Friday 14, closes this trio of confirmations. Moscoman combines the sounds of his homeland with forays into new wave, house, techno or trance, and is a key figure in the blooming club culture in Tel Aviv. Despite having moved his residence to Berlin, his sound remains faithful to Middle Eastern rhythms, and he continues to reveal young talents to the world on his own label, Disco Halal.

In the coming weeks, the festival will incorporate 13 artists into its programme, 12 of them performing on the new Nido Stage, dedicated entirely to the effervescent local scene in Madrid.

Paraíso 2019 will follow the path started in its first edition: a festival with a commitment to sustainability, where festival-goers can enjoy music among installations and artistic interventions, in a comfortable space with rest areas, a gaming area and a food area with healthy options.
